THE CONTROL OF THE PARTY OF THE		order and the control of the control
1.	On 21 June 1953, about 20 canvas-covered one-axle guns, with a barrel about 4 meters long, and pneumatic tires; 6 trucks, 1 radio truck with an extended rod antenna, about 4 meters long; 4 x 10-man house tents and 3 three-man tents were about 400 meters north of Puttgarten on Ruegen Island. Sentries armed with submachine guns patrolled the area. On 22 July, two rows of each 8 x 85-mm AA guns, 9 x 10-man house tents, 4 trucks, 1 jeep, and about 10 prime movers were about 200 meters east of Lohme. A pile of ammunition boxes was about 30 meters from the guns. The area and its vicinity were patrolled by sentries. Local residents stated that the unit had arrived two days ago.
2.		25X1A
	mentioned were unoccupied. A patrol of 1 NCO and 3 EM was observed between Stubbenkarmer and Sassnitz.
25X1A [Comment. Probably units employed in security missions at the coast of the north and northeast part of Ruegen, in connection with the measures during the rebellion in East Germany. The units employed north of Puttgarten may have belonged to the 4th AT Arty Brig (US).
